

FLORIDA HEART ASSOCIATES

JOB POSTING

ARRHYTHMIA SERVICES TECHNICIAN I – FULL-TIME

DUTIES INCLUDE, BUT NOT LIMITED TO:

- Interrogate, interpret, and reprogram cardiac devices with minimal physician supervision
- Troubleshoot critical device issues and take immediate steps toward resolution.
- Collaborate with physicians regarding device status and accurately document device analysis in EMR for review.
- Educate patients on all aspects of their device including remote monitoring and follow-up protocols.
- Ensure charges are accurately captured for device interrogation.
- Recommend and schedule appropriate follow up for ongoing device management in EMR and remote websites.
- Assist nurses and non-physician practitioners in the delivery of patient teaching.
- Serve as a resource to physicians and other practice employees regarding device patients and services.
- Keep equipment in good working condition and notify appropriate personnel of problem areas or safety issues..

QUALIFICATIONS:

- ATI/Prep MD certification or a minimum of three (3) years experience analyzing and reprogramming cardiac pacemakers, ICDs, biventricular devices and ILRs (Biotronik, Boston Scientific, Medtronic, and St. Jude Medical) or cardiac device technology certification from a recognized device training school.
- Experience reviewing and managing remote device transmissions (Biotronik, Latitude, Carelink and Merlin).
- Ability to work independently as well as in a team environment
- Ability to communicate clearly and effectively with co-workers and patients

EDUCATION:

- Graduate from an accredited program in Cardiovascular Technology (Associates degree or higher)
- RCES preferred

Florida Heart Associates is an Equal Opportunity Employer and is proud to be a drug and tobacco free organization.

Interested applicants may fill out an Internal Job Application and submit it to Human Resources.