FLORIDA HEART ASSOCIATES

JOB POSTING

NUCLEAR MEDICINE TECHNOLOGIST – PRN

REPORTS TO: Director - Non-Invasive Imaging

DUTIES INCLUDE, BUT NOT LIMITED TO:

- Start I.V.'s and inject radiopharmaceuticals.
- Perform cardiac imaging and analysis.
- Perform quality control on cameras and hot lab instruments.
- Radiation safety procedures and record keeping.
- Archive scan data.
- Assist cardiologist and nurse in emergency situations.
- Assist with maintaining accreditation and following guidelines
- Perform other duties as assigned by supervising manager.

PERFORMANCE REQUIREMENTS:

- Skill in intravenous puncture skills.
- Knowledge of cardiac scanning principles and PET imaging.
- Understanding of radiation protection and A.L.A.R.A. principles.
- Ability to critique image quality, troubleshoot technical issues and troubleshoot equipment issues.
- Skill in attention to detail and accuracy.
- Ability to communicate clearly with co-workers and patients.
- Ability to behave in a manner that exemplifies respect for others and the spirit of teamwork.
- Ability to use methods of protection from chemical, radiation, and bio-hazardous materials.
- Ability to behave in a manner that exemplifies respect for others and the spirit of teamwork.
- Ability to use methods of protection from chemical, radiation, and bio-hazardous materials.

EDUCATION: Graduate of an accredited nuclear medicine training program.

EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS:

- Experience with cardiac imaging and I.V. puncture skills required.
- Candidate MUST have a minimum of 5 years of nuclear cardiac imaging
- Cardiac PET experience preferred.

CERTIFICATE/LICENSE: Registered in nuclear medicine (ARRT or CNMT)
Current Florida license in Nuclear Medicine Technology

Florida Heart Associates is an Equal Opportunity Employer and is proud to be a drug and tobacco free organization. All potential hires will be required to take and clear a pre-employment drug screen upon job offer.